

SEG

“Students into Mining”

January 20th 2016

An event designed to help students learn more about employment in the mining industry and the careers it supports. There is a range of speakers to cover all aspects from direct geological employment through to consulting, academia and finance. Talks will be focussed on employment opportunities and career advice.

Itinerary

12:00 – 12:30: Registration

12:30 – 14:45:

Natural History Museum (Richard Herrington)

Rio Tinto (Sandy Walker)

SRK (Lucy Roberts and Ben Lepley)

Hannam and Partners (Alex Allen)

14:45 – 15:15: Coffee break

15:15 – 17:30:

CRU (Dmitry Popov)

Wardell Armstrong (Liv Carroll)

Imperial College/ Grinding solutions (Kathryn Hadler)

17:30: Networking Reception

Location

Presentations will take place in room G.41 located on the first floor of the Royal School of Mines (RSM) Building at Imperial College; all rooms will be clearly signposted from the entrance to the RSM, which is from Prince Consort Road.

The nearest tube station is South Kensington, which is a 5-10 minute walk from the department. See Imperial College Campus map for directions on the following page:

<https://workspace.imperial.ac.uk/campusinfo/public/sthkencampus.pdf>

For enquiries and to register email

seg.chapter@imperial.ac.uk